

The Great Transformation

Chillcoot Pass Gold Dawson City

When _____ was discovered in the Yukon, many people looked to Many people died on the way to search for gold, because they had to pass through the dangerous _____ . The settlers that made it thought the Pass, still had 500 kilometres until they made it to _____. The city sprung up almost overnight, and had 30, 000 people living there within a couple of weeks.

The Sunny Way

Law June Laurier

Wilfrid _____ was famous for the diamond horseshoe he always wore on his tie. He studied _____ at McGill University and becomes a lawyer in Quebec. In 1896 there is an election called and Laurier runs to be Prime Minister, and in _____ he wins. He becomes Canada's first French Prime Minister!

Not a Practical Mind

60th French Boer War

There is a giant celebration in Canada called the Diamond Jubilee, celebrating The Queen's _____ year on the throne. Afterwards, a war starts in South Africa that is called the _____. Many in Canada did not want to get involved, especially _____ Canadians.

The Last Best West

Edmonton Clifford Sifton Land

The Canadian government wants to settle people in the West, so Laurier asks _____ to come up with a plan. He creates The Dominion Land Act which gives away free _____. The 160 free acres attract people from all over Europe to settle in Canada's West. Most people get get off the train at the end of the line at _____.

The Mines and the Minds

Miners Seventy Radio

In Cape Breton, a new industry is causing people to give up on the traditional fishing way of life. More and more people are getting jobs as _____. The jobs was dangerous and didn't pay very well. Miners would take home as little as _____ cents at the end of the month. Children as young as 9 would also work in the mine!

Above the miners, the first _____ broadcast and airplane flight in Canada occurred.

A Nation of Cities

Fifty-nine Montreal Fifty

Electricity is relatively new in cities, but when it arrives, it changes the city landscape. People start moving to cities; _____ triples in size in twenty years. In fact it becomes the first city to reach half a million people. Factories grew and workers had to work for long hours, often as many as _____ hours in a week. The average pay is 13 cents an hour and adults are only expected to live until the age of _____.

A New Map of Canada

Million 1905 Saskatchewan

With all the new people living in Canada's West it means that new provinces are needed. In _____ two new provinces are created; Alberta and _____. Prime Minister Laurier is happy with the Open Door policy that has led to a _____ new immigrants moving to Canada.